

HOW DO I IMMIGRATE?

Is the most common question asked by people who visit Australia and New Zealand.

Understandably so.

Koalas and kangaroos apart, there's so much more to Australia. So much more, of Australia. To explore. To admire. To get lost in.

Ayers Rock. The Outback. The Gold Coast. The Barrier Reef. The Opera House.

Not to mention cities packed with everything from theme parks to the hippest party joints.

And New Zealand's not all kontikis and kiwis either.

Beaches. Glaciers. Cruises. Nature trails. Bungee jumping.

It's not very hard to imagine exactly why the Maori are so fiercely possessive.

So don't be alarmed by your desire to pack your bags for good. It's natural. It's expected.

But we would like to point out that you will have to make a choice.

Will it be Australia? Or New Zealand?

To make up your mind, we suggest you visit them both.
